Farm notes: What a gorgeous and glorious day we had on Saturday! Thanks to all who made it out for our first Riverdog Pumpkin Party since 2019!! We had our first day of perfect cool Fall weather; it felt great to be out in the sun. Folks brought lots of delicious savory and sweet treats to share and a lot of happiness to the farm. It was hard to interrupt all the happy chatter so I failed introduce members to the crew who were there and offer heartfelt thanks for all that they bring to our farm community. Without our full time, year around crew, the farm does not exist. Many of the folks there have been part of the farm for over ten years, some as many as twenty five years! That is a lot of combined experience, skill and wisdom that is integral to the success of Riverdog. Likewise, there were new and longtime CSA members out to celebrate - you too are integral to the success of Riverdog. Thanks to everyone, present and not, and we hope to see more folks at the next party, hopefully this Spring!

We are delighted to be able to include yet another round of Summer Squash this week though it may well be the last. Our daily high temps have dropped from the 90s last week to the 70s this week and we are starting to see consistent dews which will foster more diseases. Enjoy them while they last!! You may notice that some of the Batavian lettuce is forming up a flower stalk even though it's not fully mature, this is a response to the extreme heat it endured in its infancy back in September - early childhood experiences have consequences for plants as well! It is still delicious, crunchy and sweet. The IceBerg and Red Leaf reached straight for the sky, making no heads at all. More lettuce is coming behind this planting and will hopefully not suffer the same reaction. The Tokyo Turnips continue to roll in - remember to us those deliciously bitter greens quickly as they are fragile; I love the turnips themselves best raw! Daikon's are back! Again I'm a raw user but pickling is allegedly very easy too! Enjoy all the greens!!

Riverdog Farm's Community-Supported Agriculture (CSA), is based on a mutually beneficial relationship between the farm and the people who consume our food. Because our farm supports 50 families through year-round employment, the financial support of our CSA program is critical to our success throughout the seasons. CSA is also an integral way for the farm to personally connect to the people who eat our food. We truly thank you for your support!
